

Cristina COSCIA CV

CRISTINA COSCIA, Architect, Phd, Specialization in “Storia, Analisi e Valutazione dei Beni Architettonici e Ambientali”, Second level Master in “Pianificazione territoriale e Mercato Immobiliare, Adjunct Professor of Project Evaluation and Real Estate in Politecnico di Torino-DAD.

Working experience, institutional roles

Adjunct Professor in Estimo at the Department of Architecture and Design of the Polytechnic of Turin, she has been a member of the Order of Architects of Turin since 2000 and from 21st September 2018 she's a vice-President of Order of Architects. From October 21st 2013 she is CUG President of the Polytechnic of Turin. Since 2001 he has carried out teaching and research activities on the themes of enhancing architectural and cultural resources, the feasibility of public and private investment projects and the use of ICT for the management of public goods and spaces.

He is part of the work staff of the City of Turin Real Estate Observatory (OICT).

From 2007 to 2012 she was a member of the Board of Directors of the Politecnico di Torino.

She was the coordinator of the II Level University Master's Degree in Real estate, territorial planning and real estate market and vice-coordinator of the 2nd level University Master's Degree in Management, Marketing and Multimedia for cultural assets and activities.

She has often dealt with the subject of new training profiles in relation to the world of profession.

Teaching Experience and Research Area (key-Words and research Axes)

Since 2001 he has been teaching and research on issues of enhancement of the architectural and cultural resources and the feasibility of projects of public and private investment and the use of ICT for the management of public goods and spaces. Recently experimental research fields are those of data mining, analysis of consumption and cultural behaviors of new audiences, models of choice profiles of cultural demand.

Publications SCOPUS/WOS INDEX in the recent 5 years

12 publications

Achievement awards

For the competition announcement SiForAge Social Innovation Research Prize 2014 the Italian project "Crodmapping Mirafiori SUD", coordinated by Cristina Coscia and Francesca De Filippi (2014) won the first award with the following motivation: "This prize aims to give recognition to projects that undertake research into social innovation in active and healthy ageing and that make significant contributions to ager communities, their families, and caregivers in order to promote an inclusive society"