

Biography

Antonio Nesticò

PhD, is Associate Professor of Appraisal in the Department of Civil Engineering (DiCIV) and Head of the Economic Evaluation Division of the Project Evaluation Laboratory, PEL (www.pel.unisa.it) at the University of Salerno. Graduated with honours in Civil Engineering at the University of Naples “Federico II”, is qualified as Full Professor for the scientific disciplinary sector ICAR 22 - Appraisal. Member of the Academic Platform of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Mediterranean (<https://www.pam.int/>), member of the Italian Society of Appraisal and Evaluation (SIEV) and member of the Teaching Board of the Ph.D in “Risk and sustainability in civil engineering and environmental engineering systems” (DiCIV), he participates in research group activities with national and international collaborations (i.e. Gran Sasso Science Institute, GSSI, School of Advanced Studies, Social Sciences Division; School of Economics, Shanghai University SHU-SOE; ENEA Research Center). Honorary Member of the Centro Studi di Economia e Diritto (Ce.S.E.D., Milan), he achieves an acknowledgment of the National Association of Building Constructors (ANCE, Salerno) for the value of the scientific and didactic activity carried out within the initiatives related to the “Antonio Genovesi National Prize”, in the field of study and research on the economic evaluation of investment projects. Member of the editorial board of the journal Valori e Valutazioni and referee for national and international journals, he is author of over 90 publications and has presented papers at numerous international workshops and conferences.