

Palazzo Gravina (Via Monteoliveto 3 – 80134, Naples, Italy).

TRANSPORT

Arriving from Naples Capodichino Airport (NAP)

- Alibus: For €5, the Alibus connects the airport to the main train station (Garibaldi Station), where you can access both buses and the metro.
- Metro from Garibaldi Station: Take metro line L1 (yellow) for €1.50, get off at Via Toledo station, and continue on foot.
- Bus: The R2 bus departs from Garibaldi Station to the Sanfelice – Bovio stop. The fare is €1.30; from there, you can walk to your destination.
- Taxi: Taxis are available at the airport. The GOXGO app is also useful for hailing a cab. Uber is available but with limited coverage (it will call a regular taxi). The fare to Palazzo Gravina is approximately €20.

Arriving from Rome Airports (FCO/CIA)

- From Fiumicino Airport (FCO):
 - Take the Leonardo Express train to Rome Termini (32 minutes, departs every 15 minutes).
 - From Rome Termini, board a high-speed train to Naples Central Station.
- From Ciampino Airport (CIA):
 - Purchase the Airlink combined ticket for the shuttle bus to Ciampino train station, then take the regional train to Rome Termini. When booking via the Trenitalia app, select “Ciampino Aeroporto” as your origin.
 - Alternatively, take a Flixbus for a direct connection from Ciampino to Naples Garibaldi Station; the fare is approximately €14.50.
